LAFAYETTE MAN CHARGED WITH $50,000 FRAUD

PRESS RELEASE

Timothy M. Morrison, Acting United States Attorney for the Southern District of Indiana, announced that ROBBIN J. RIEMKE, 46, of Lafayette, Indiana, was indicted by a federal grand jury sitting in Indianapolis for mail fraud, following an investigation by the U.S. Postal Inspection Service.

The indictment alleges that, between October 1, 2003, and April 1, 2005, RIEMKE used the United States mail to submit false invoices to Aramark and to receive checks totaling approximately $53,966 as payment for the false invoices.

According to Assistant U. S. Attorney Todd S. Shellenbarger, who is prosecuting the case for the government, RIEMKE faces a maximum possible prison sentence of 20 years and a maximum possible fine of $250,000. RIEMKE was arrested following his indictment. After a hearing held on January 7, 2008 before a U.S. Magistrate Judge, RIEMKE was released under conditions of pre-trial supervision pending disposition of this case.

The indictment is an allegation only, and the defendant is presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty at trial or by guilty plea.
